

Inhalt

Acknowledgements	9
Preface by Uta Gärtner	11
1 Introduction: Local Traditions, Global Modernities— Dress, Identity and the Creation of Public Self-Images in Contemporary Urban Myanmar	15
The Location: Contemporary Urban Myanmar	19
Theory and Methods	24
This Study	40
2 ‘Traditional’ Dress	43
From Customary Dress to ‘Traditional’ Dress— Dynamic or Fixed ?	43
History	45
From the Earliest Times to the Fall of Bagan	46
Thirteenth to Eighteenth Century	49
Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century	55
Colonial Period (1885–1948)	58
After Independence—Pluralism and Civil War (1948–1962)	65
The ‘Burmese Way to Socialism’ (1962–1988)	66
The Postsocialist Period (1988–Present)	67
Traditional Garments—Material Aspects, Wearing and Perception	70
The Longyi	70
Women’s Upper Garments	76
Men’s Upper Garments	79
Shoes and Accessories	82

3	Photography, Dress and the Presentation of Self and Other	85
	Colonial Portraits of ‘the Burmese’ from the Collection of the Ethnological Museum Berlin	88
	Dress in the Imagery of Myanmar Magazines	103
	Privately Commissioned Portraits	114
	Wedding Photography	119
4	Fashion	141
	Fashion and the Fashion System in Europe	144
	The Evolution of Fashion in Myanmar: Actors as Trendsetters	147
	The Impact of Foreign Film on Local Fashion	161
	The Fashion Industry and Fashion Design in Present Yangon	172
5	Getting Dressed in Contemporary Yangon: Dress as a Means of Communication and a Marker of Identity	185
	Habitus	186
	Gender and Age	187
	Social Status	204
	Religion, Ethnicity and Politics: Dress as a Marker of Difference	210
	Stage	226
	Conclusion	241
	Appendix: Glossary of Myanmar Terms	247
	References	267